Baseball	Section 6	R1 on 1st with no outs. F1 comes set and R1 breaks for 2nd. F1 waits until R1 is totally committed toward 2nd then jump turns and throws to F6 who tags R1 out.	This is a legal move because F1 is attempting to retire or force back and advancing runner	This is a legal move because F1 is attempting to retire or force back and advancing runner
Baseball	Section 7	When the proper batter is called out because he failed to bat in his proper turn, the next batter shall be the batter whose name follows that of the proper batter.	TRUE	TRUE
Baseball	Section 7	With no outs B3 swings and misses a pitch in the dirt for strike three. The ball bounces off F2's shoulder into the air where it is struck by B3's follow-through causing the ball to roll toward the dugout area. R3, on 3rd, does not attempt to advance until he sees the ball being hit and rolling toward the dugout. This is an immediate dead ball since there was initially no attempted play at the plate. B3 is out and R3 returns to third.	TRUE	TRUE
Baseball	Section 7	B1, a right-handed batter, leaves the batter's box when the catcher feints a pickoff throw to first. The batter is not charged with a strike for leaving the batter's box.	TRUE	TRUE
Baseball	Section 7	If a batter leaves the batter's box with none of the exceptions to rule 7-3-1 in effect, but does not delay the game in the umpire's opinion, a strike shall still be added to the count.	FALSE	FALSE
Baseball	Section 7	B3 hits a grand slam. The bat is discovered by the umpire laying in live ball territory after a pitch has been thrown to B4. He walks over to move the bat and notices that it only has a BESR certification making it an illegal bat. Since a pitch has been thrown to B4, B3's grand slam stands. However, B3's coach is restricted to the dugout for the remainder of the game.	TRUE	TRUE
Baseball	Section 8	A player who is awarded first base on a base on balls has the right to overrun first base and return without liability of being put out.	TRUE	TRUE
Baseball	Section 8	With no outs, B2 hits a ground ball that is fielded by F6. F6's throw draws F3 off 1st. F3 attempts to tag B2 as he nears the base. B2 slaps at F3's glove dislodging the ball. The ball rolls several feet away. B2 is safe.	FALSE	FALSE
Baseball	Section 8	R3 on 3rd and R2 on 2nd with one out. B7 singles to the outfield with R3 scoring easily and R2 being thrown out at home. B7 moves up to 2nd on the throw home. The defensive team's coach comes out to the mound to talk with his pitcher. After the conference is over the coach verbal appeals B7 missing 1st base. U1 calls B7 out for the third out. B7's out is a force out, therefore, R3's run does not count.	TRUE	TRUE
Baseball	Section 8	R2, on 2nd, is attempting to steal 3rd as B1 hits a ground ball to F4. F4's throw is wild and lodges in B1's uniform. The ball is dead immediately, B1 is awarded 1st, and R2 is awarded 3rd.	TRUE	TRUE
Baseball	Section 8	R2, on 2nd, misses third as he scores on B1's hit. F1, on the rubber, attempts to pick off B1 now on first. After the attempted pick off, the defense appeals R2's missing of third. The appeal is not honored due to the defense having attempted a play, the pickoff of B1 on 1st.	TRUE	TRUE
